ARTICLE 3: ORGANIZATION

A. Officers

The Organization shall have four officers: President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer.

B. Board of Directors

The Organization shall be directed by a board of directors consisting of and elected by the HOMEOWNER MEMBERS of the Organization. The Board of Directors will consist of the President, the Vice-President, the Secretary, the Treasurer, and the at-large directors. There will be five (5) at-large directors; thus making 9 members on the board.

It is desired to have at least one member of the board of directors from the Rarity Bay Condominiums, who is also a resident/owner; provided a HOMEOWNER from the condominiums wishes to run for one of the Officers or at-large Board positions.

C. Duties of Board of Directors

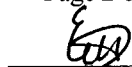

The Board of Directors (hereinafter referred to as the "Board") shall determine the policies appropriate to carry out the purposes of the Organization. The Board shall also formulate the goals, plans and strategies to implement and attain the purposes and policies of the Organization. The board shall approve the appointment of all committee chairpersons and committee members. The Board shall also be responsible to make an annual review of these bylaws and to recommend any changes considered necessary for amendment under the provisions of Article 11 below.

The Board shall also establish and maintain two-way communications among the Rarity Bay Homeowners Organization, members, prospective members, the Rarity Bay community, and the broader community outside of Rarity Bay. They shall use all available forms of communications including email and ordinary mail, as well as all appropriate forms of public media.

D. Committees

Such committees as deemed necessary by the Board shall be established to carry out the purposes of the Organization in accordance with the provisions of Article 10 below. Permanent committees and provisions for establishing special committees are covered in Article 10.
